

November 10, 2015

VA Chorus performed.

New Principal at Rosendale: Joseph DiCaprio. He has children currently in the school.

NCAP 10/27 on marijuana very informative.

VA had another turkey trot.

Superintendent outlined the evaluation process.

Building condition survey assessing the districts needs is underway. Looking into geothermal heating in high school since it's been an issue.

Snow days: our district will work together with other districts as far as calling snow days. There will no longer be any one hour delays. Either two hour delay or closed.

Attended a work shop on world class education.

District is looking for ways to continue to improve it's food service.

District held a meeting on 11/2 with area realtors. Future meetings will also be held.

District is working with financial advisors on a five year financial plan.

Lauren Gemmill gave an overview of the NYS assessments and AP results. The district continues to perform well.

Carrie Nyc-Chevrier outlined the 2016-17 budget development calendar. Similar to last year.

Some policies were reviewed.

November 24, 2015

Board members have attended many events. PTO meetings, JCC Gala, banquets, strategic planning meetings, etc.

Board approved Lynne Rutnik as the district's special education director and abolished her previous position of special education administrator. It aligns with the other K-12 director positions.

Elementary Program presentation leading into the 2016-17 budget process.

School sponsored trips were discussed in light of the Paris tragedy. Dr. Tangorra will have a meeting with the parents next week about the Italy and France trips. No decisions have been made thus far.

Chad Shippee was appointed Director of Music Education.

High school security monitor position has been posted and will be reposed.

Additional policies were reviewed.